Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, On October 29, 1988, the South Dakota Symphony will be participating in the statewide celebration of South Dakota's Centennial with a concert in Sioux Falls, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Jean Kopperud, a national recognized classical clarinetist, will be on stage that evening with the Symphony orchestra; and,

WHEREAS, Jean Kopperud is a native of Sioux Falls and has contributed much to the music programs of the Symphony; and,

WHEREAS, Jean Kopperud is a creative and innovative musical artist performing with amazing resourcefulness and energy and has made quite a name for herself at her young age; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of Jean Kopperud's accomplishments in the music world:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 29, 1988, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Sixth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
